

DECEMBER 18, 2013

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT REPORT

SUBMITTED BY DENA L. KIRBY, SUPERVISOR

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- PIONEER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH. Pioneer Career and Technology Center has chosen Shelby seniors Maggie Ensman and Ashley Stroup as Students of the Month. Ensman was nominated by her Media Communications Instructor Lynn Moritz and is the daughter of Karla Lawrence. Stroup was nominated by her English Language Arts Instructor Mary Cosker and is the daughter of Jon Stroup and Angie Logue.
- HOLIDAY CARD DESIGNED BY PIONEER STUDENTS. Ontario Junior Nicole Patrice from Media Communications designed the winning cover for the Pioneer holiday card contest this year. Bucyrus Junior Autumn Swartz from Graphic Arts designed the inside greeting. There were 54 entries this year in the contest. The winning design is sent to Pioneer's constituents in the area.
- WELDING PROGRAM FEATURED IN THE HOBART INSTITUTE OF WELDING PUBLICATION. Recently the Welding Program was featured in a photograph in the Hobart Institute of Welding Publication, The World of Welding. Speakers from Hobart visited Pioneer which resulted in Pioneer's inclusion of their feature, "Picture Yourself at Hobart." The publication can be read at www.welding.org.
- GRAPHIC ARTS STUDENTS CREATE SIGN FOR PERFORMING ARTS PROGRAM. Graphic Arts students Matt Thurston and Ehron Wood created a 2 X 3 metal sign to be hung at the Performing Arts building in downtown Mansfield. Students utilized Photoshop and Illustrator for the design and created the lettering with the vinyl machine (see photo below).

