

MARCH 17, 2014

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT REPORT

SUBMITTED BY DENA L. KIRBY, SUPERVISOR

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

- PIONEER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH. Pioneer Career and Technology Center has chosen students Olivia Scarborough and Katelyn Cramer as Students of the Month. Scarborough, a junior from Lexington High School, is enrolled in the Welding Program. She is the daughter of Richard and Jeanette Scarborough and was nominated by her Welding instructor, Kip Stevens. Cramer is a junior from Colonel Crawford High School, and is enrolled in the Dental Assisting Program. Cramer is the daughter of Douglas and Cyndie Cramer and was nominated by her Dental Assisting instructor, Melissa Myers.
- EXERCISE SCIENCE STUDENTS EXCEL ON OHIO HOSA TEST. Nine senior students in the Exercise Science/Sports Medicine Program scored in the top eight scoring categories on the Ohio HOSA State Written Test. Students who met this cut-off included Amber Cain from Wynford, who scored in the top tier. Additionally, the following students met the Top 8: Kilee Kimmel, Buckeye Central; Kristy Reagan, Bucyrus; Kelsi Ronk, Crestline; Chase Brlan, Colonel Crawford; Amber Gottfried, Wynford; Paige Delarber, Plymouth; Allison Naugle, Shelby; and Shiloh Stuart, Crestview.
- GRAPHIC ARTS STUDENT WINS LOGO CONTEST. Senior JJ Spradling, a Graphic Arts student from Lucas, recently won a logo contest for the Mansfield/Richland County Public Library. The logo will be for their summer reading program, which is entitled, "Spark a Reaction in Your Library." The library will be using Spradling's logo for temporary tattoos for the summer program as well.
- COLLEGE NOW BUSINESS STUDENTS ON DEAN'S LIST. Seven College NOW Business Administration students made the Dean's List at NCSC for the fall semester. The following students earned this honor: Madison Adams and Hannah Dixon, Clear Fork; Chynna Gutai, Mansfield Senior; John Metzger, Shelby; Wyatt Montgomery, Plymouth; and Mariah Stacy and Christina Tilton, Lucas.
- CRESTLINE AND BUCYRUS FCCLA STUDENTS COMPETE, MOVE ON TO STATE. The following Crestline FCCLA students competed early this month in the Regional FCCLA Competition in Elyria and will compete at the state level next month in Columbus. The students included Senior Brea Quail, who received a perfect score and a gold medal in the National Program in Action Event. Other placers included Senior Kayley Makeever and Junior Blake Miller, Chapter in Review Portfolio; and Junior Claudia Koan, Sports Nutrition. Bucyrus FCCLA sophomore Erika Alspach won a gold in National Programs as well.
- COLONEL CRAWFORD FFA PLACES AT COMPETITIONS. Colonel Crawford FFA students had their books evaluated at District Competition last month. Rebecca Enright's Treasurer Book received a gold rating and she placed second. Katie Cramer's Secretary's Book received a bronze. Additionally, two teams competed at the Country Tractor Trouble Shooting Contest. The team of Wes Pollock and Jesse Sellman placed second. The team of Wyatt Caldwell and Curtis Hatcher placed first and will move to District Competition in Elyria, where they placed first. They will now be competing at the State Contest in Lima as one of the Top 15 teams in the state.
- WYNFORD FFA STUDENTS AWARDED. Aryn Copeland placed third in the state for public speaking in the Beginning Prepared category. Zach Stuckey made the Top 4 in the state for Star Farmer. Connor Teters will be receiving her American Degree and Tessa Starnier will be receiving her State Degree.