

FEBRUARY 20, 2017

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT REPORT

SUBMITTED BY DENA L. KIRBY, SUPERVISOR

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

PIONEER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH. Pioneer Career and Technology Center has chosen students Macie Pry and Morgan Woetko as January Students of the Month. Pry, a senior from Shelby High School, is enrolled in the Horticulture Program. She is the daughter of Kate and Wayne Pry and was nominated by her instructor, Sandy Grau. Woetko is a senior from Wynford High School, and is enrolled in the Performing Arts Program. She is the daughter of Tina and Frank Woetko and was nominated by her Performing Arts instructor, Anne Kurtzman.

February Students of the Month include Autumn Parr and Alex Fike. Parr is a junior from Lexington High School in the Dental Assisting Program and was nominated by her instructor Melissa Myers. She is the daughter of Matt and Tina Parr. Fike is the son of Todd and Jackie Fike and is a senior in the Precision Machining Program. A student from Buckeye Central High School, Fike was nominated by his English instructor Lindsay Neumann.

BPA REGIONAL COMPETITION SEES STUDENTS ADVANCE. Students who participated in the Region 7 BPA Workplace Skills Assessment Contest last month netted a total of 22 students who will be advancing to the next level. Students who placed first included the following: Computer Network Technology, Junior IT Support: Brandon Hall (Ontario). Computer Security, Senior IT Support: Stephen Horning (Galion). Computer Programming Concepts, Senior IT Support, Dominic Marino (Galion). Database Applications, Senior IT Support, Dylan Jenny (Willard). Fundamentals of Web Design, Junior Web Page Design, Hannah Hawkins (Shelby). Information Technology Concepts, Senior IT Support, Joseph Timko (Lexington). Network Administration Using Microsoft, Senior IT Support, Jackson Hirschy (Bucyrus). SQL Database Fundamentals, Senior IT Support, Allison Melton (Plymouth). In addition to these winners, 14 students placed second, 11 placed third, and 3 placed fourth. Teachers in these programs include Dan Foss and Marianne Ritchie.

MASONRY STUDENTS PLACE IN CONTEST. Students in the Masonry Program competed in contest at Buckeye Career Center in December. Results of the contest were as follows: Juniors, Cameron Hamilton (Shelby), 7th place and Colton Putnam (Bucyrus), 10th place. Seniors, Dane Calame (Lucas), 5th place and Trevor Ritz (Shelby), 10th place. Instructor Grant Brocwell observed that the scoring was very close and was a great experience for students in the program.

BUCYRUS STUDENTS PLACE IN DECA COMPETITION. Students in Bucyrus Marketing and Media Programs competed in the DECA District 3 Career Development Conference at Ohio Northern University on January 31. Results are as follows: First Place, Bailey Pulmley, Apparel and Accessories Marketing; Gavin Lewis, Business Finance; Maggie Weir, Human Resource Management; Loarel Mollenkopf and Brianna Predieri, Business Law and Ethics; and Brittany Purcell, Hospitality and Tourism Professional Setting. Second Place: Earl Jefferson, Food Marketing; Brooklyn Spears, Sports and Entertainment Marketing; and Jo Metz, Professional Selling. Third Place: Robert McComas, Quick Serve Restaurant Management and Celia Kelley, Professional Selling. Fourth Place: Jacie Everett and Shaina Orewiler, Hospitality and Tourism; Aubrey Dye and Bryce Steward, Travel and Tourism. Fifth Place, Nic Horsley, Automotive Services Marketing; Jacob Meeks, Restaurant and Food Service Marketing; Aaron Stilwell, Retail Merchandising; and Kaden Wilson and Carsen Prinstill, Marketing Management Team.

SHOPE-WILLIAMS RUNNER UP IN VOICE OF DEMOCRACY CONTEST. Kyle Shope-Williams, who is in the Media Program, placed second in the Mansfield VFW Post 9943 Voice of Democracy Contest and received a cash prize at the Post luncheon and awards ceremony. Shope-Williams is a junior from Galion High School.

SHELBY FCCLA MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS VOLUNTEER FOR SALVATION ARMY. Amber Craig, Joselyn Bailey, Caitlin Stidam, David Samon, Connor Knapp and Kala Allen volunteered to ring the bell in December at the Shelby IGA location.

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS CONT'D

HOSA STUDENTS COMPETE AT REGIONALS; ADVANCE TO STATE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE. Thirty-two students from programs that belong to the HOSA Student Organization representing Medical Office, Exercise Science and Sports Medicine, Medical Technologies, Dental Assisting, and Health Assistant Programs advanced at the HOSA Regional Leadership Conference late last month at the Medina County Career Center. They will advance to the State Leadership Conference next month. Parliamentary Procedure Team (1st place): Logan Ballash (Dental, Lexington); Mikaila Bardroff (Med. Tech, Lexington); Brandie Bogner (Dental, Ashland); Chelsie Kegley (Dental, Shelby); and Stephanie Stacklin (Dental, Lexington). Dental Science: 1st, Haley Handshoe (Willard); 2nd, Paige Mazor (Buckeye Central); 3rd, Rachel Bell (Bucyrus). Sports Medicine: 3rd, Jaimie Blunt (Shelby); 5th, Jenna Dunn (Northmor). Dental Terminology: 5th, Kaitlyn Bushey (Plymouth). Community Awareness Team from Med. Tech.: 4th, Lindsey Christini (Galion); Olivia Viers (Northmor); and Hannah Evans (Galion). Home Health Aide from Health Assistant: 2nd, Hannah Hughes (Shelby); 3rd, Hope Dye (Willard). Medical Math, 5th: Itzel Francisco (Med. Tech., Willard). Health Career Display from Exercise Science, 2nd: Lexi Hadamuscin (Galion) and Sam Wilhite (Crestline). Extemporaneous Health Poster: 1st, Courtney Harris (Dental, Lucas); 4th, Danny Montgomery (Exercise Science, Willard); 5th, Hannah Quibell (Dental, Northmor). Health Education Team from Med. Tech., 5th: Alicia Heintz (Buckeye Central); Brittney Nolen (Colonel Crawford); and Sydney Vaughn (Buckeye Central). Medical Spelling: 2nd, Alexia Prichard (Dental, Shelby); and 5th, Noah Krupa (Exercise Science, Lucas). Human Growth and Development: 1st, Madison Lawson (Dental, Galion). Health Career Photography, 1st, Kendra Linn (Exercise Science, Ontario). Extemporaneous Writing: 2nd, Kaylee Morgan (Dental, Crestline). Healthy Lifestyles: 1st, Chris Schafer (Exercise Science, Ontario). Medical Law and Ethics: 1st, Brenna Shade (Exercise Science, Colonel Crawford).

148 PIONEER STUDENTS GARNER PERFECT ATTENDANCE FOR QUARTER 2. 51 students had perfect attendance for the second quarter. They receive a T-shirt. 62 students had perfect attendance for two quarters in a row. Ten students had perfect attendance for three quarters in a row, three for four quarters in a row, five for five quarters in a row, and 14 for six quarters in a row. Those on track with perfect attendance for six quarters include the following students: From Buckeye Central: Wyatt Skidmore and Tyler Trapp. From Bucyrus: Rachel Bell. From Colonel Crawford: Jessica Brocwell and Brenna Shade. From Crestview: Travis Messersmith and Jerry Michowka. From Galion: Dusty Thomas. From Northmor: James Walker. From Plymouth: Ashley Fletcher and Josh Gilbert. From Shelby: Taylor Fry. From Willard: Dylan Jenny. From Wynford: Makaila Bloomfield.

STUDENTS RECEIVE AUTOMOTIVE SERVICE EXCELLENCE CERTIFICATIONS. Seven students from Dave Such's Auto Tech. Program recently received a variety of ASE Certifications. Those receiving certifications include the following: Junior Austin Owens (Crestview): Brakes, Engine Repair, Maintenance and Light Repair, and Automotive Service Technology. Seniors Krislyn Yoxthimer (Lexington): Automobile Suspension and Steering, Brakes, Engine Repair, and Automotive Service Technology; Michael Knisely (Colonel Crawford): Brakes, Engine Repair, and Maintenance and Light Repair; Diego Gonzalez (Crestline): Suspension and Steering, Brakes, Maintenance and Light Repair, and Automotive Service Technology; Jakeb Johnson (Colonel Crawford): Brakes; Austin Lewis (Bucyrus): Suspension and Steering and Engine Repair; Jacob Prosser (Plymouth): Brakes and Engine Repair.

HURST NAMED SHS OUTSTANDING STUDENT. Senior Graphic Arts student Lexi Hurst was recently selected as the Shelby High School Outstanding Student. Hurst was chosen by Shelby based on her GPA, class rank and activity in marching and concert bands at Shelby as well as her membership in Student Council and Skills USA at Pioneer. She is the daughter of Bruce and Tina Hurst and plans to attend Malone University to major in graphic design and digital arts or psychology.

GALION SENIOR PROJECT FOCUSES ON CARNIVAL OF HOPE. Senior ECE student Haley Conkel from Galion focused her Senior Project on creating a "Carnival of Hope" to raise money for World Vision and secure sponsorships for children in Zambia. She was able to secure donations from the Galion community to hold this special event last month at the Galion Intermediate School.