STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

PIONEER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH. Pioneer Career and Technology Center has chosen students Brieann Johns and Curtis Hatcher as Students of the Month. Johns is enrolled in the Medical Technologies Program and was nominated by Jane Knight. She is the daughter of Kelly Johns and is a senior from Bucyrus High School. Hatcher is a junior from Colonel Crawford High School and was nominated by his Carpentry Instructor, Doug Zimmerman. He is the son of Tina Hatcher.

PIONEER ADULT EDUCATION STUDENT OF THE MONTH. Thomas Smith of Shelby was chosen as Pioneer Career and Technology Center's Adult Education Student of the Month. He is enrolled in the Welding Technology Program and was nominated by his instructor, Mark Simon.

SKILLS USA STUDENTS ATTEND FALL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE. Eleven Pioneer students attended the SkillsUSA Fall Leadership Conference November 1 and 2 in Columbus. Students attended leadership sessions and heard motivational speakers. This conference focused on how to be voting delegates for students running for office. Emily Eidt (Shelby, Exercise Science), Jessica Francisco (Crestview, Media), and Katie Shepherd (Crestline, Health Academy) all made it to the final two in their designated officer categories, and Shepherd was elected as the Northwest Regional State SkillsUSA Treasurer. She will be attending the National Leadership Training Institute in Washington, DC, January 13-18, 2013. Other students attending included Cheyenne Bowman (Crestline, Welding), Jessica Gibson-Fitzpatrick (Lucas, Graphic Arts), Kelsey Saum (Crestline, Graphic Arts), Sheridan Stall (Galion, Exercise Science), Heather Twinning (Galion, Health Academy), Paul Burton (Crestline, CAD), Wyatt Caldwell (Colonel Crawford, Diesel) and Tyler Quibell (Northmor, Carpentry).

WYNFORD FFA PLACES IN SOIL JUDGING. Last month, Tulsa Fearing, Zach Hurst, Kayle Ort and Tessa Starner all participated in the state soils contest located at Malabar Farm. The team placed 19th out of 50 urban teams. Fearing placed 12th individually.

CRAWFORD COUNTY FFA ATTENDS NATIONAL CONVENTION. Students in the Colonel Crawford/Pioneer FFA Chapter traveled to Indianapolis for the National FFA Convention. Attending were Jessica Lohr, Rebecca Enright, Tony Gwirtz, Jessica Millenbaugh, Cheyenne Johnson, Kendra Hudson, Taylor Lutz, Dalton Hoover, Kyle Hudson, Adam Widman, Alex Brause and Darren Thomas. The chapter had two graduates who received the American FFA Degree at the final session: Brent Rossman and Katelyn Lutz.

PERFORMING ARTS STUDENTS EXCEL. Senior Eden Smock (Wynford) spent the summer attending Buckeye Girls State and Ohio Harmony Camp, and the fall performing in the lead role of Aunt Abby Brewster in Wynford High School's production of Arsenic and Old Lace. Senior Robyn Russell (Madison) starred as Lady Macbeth in the OSU/Mansfield production of Macbeth.

PERFECT ATTENDANCE AWARDS. For the first quarter, 208 students had perfect attendance. This is 22 percent of the student body. Of these students, 19 seniors have had perfect attendance for five quarters!

HEALTH ACADEMY STUDENTS PASS CREDENTIALING TESTS. Students in Pioneer's Health Academy recently passed the American Heart Association Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers Credential and the American Heart Association Heart Saver First Aid Course. Students need at least an 84% on the written test and must pass numerous skills tests. The first round of students passing both tests include the following: from Bucyrus: Kasey Charlton; from Colonel Crawford: Jake Branam, Kelsey Dixon and Patrick Hutchinson; from Crestview: Kerry Knipp and Autumn Creamer; from Galion: Destiny Laney and Victoria Vanburen; from Lucas, Jena Quicksall; from Northmor: Jessika Clark; from Willard: Breanna Bowmar. Additionally, Rachel Griffin of Shelby, Stephen Lee of Crestline, and Ashley Mulvane of Willard passed the First Aid Course, and Megan Banks of Wynford, Kaitlin Yosick of Lexington and Sierra Spade of Northmor passed the Life Support Course.
