COLONEL CRAWFORD FFA. During the week of July 14, Colonel Crawford FFA students participated in the Crawford County Fair. The following students placed at the fair: Travis Bogard, Kyle Hudson, Taylor Lutz, Kendra Hudson, Elaina Sellman, Jake Lohr, Jacob Faulkner, Jessica Lohr, Adam Widman, Jessica Millenbaugh, Katie Cramer, Colton Guinther, Bronwyn Leonhardt, Cheyenne Johnson, Adam Widman, Kyle Harmon and Riley Erwin. Kyle Hudson, Widman, Millenbaugh, Guinther and Leonhardt received Grand Champion ratings, while others with Champion and Reserve Champion rankings included the following: Kendra Hudson, Sellman, Leonhardt, Jessica Lohr, Millenbaugh, Harmon, Johnson, and Widman.

The FFA also participated in community service this summer by cleaning up a flower bed at the Crawford County fairgrounds and working at the Ohio State Fair Pork Booth. The chapter worked in both the indoor pavilion and the outdoor trailer to assist visitors to the Ohio State Fair.

CRESTLINE FCCLA. Crestline FCCLA member Blake Miller competed at the Ohio State Fair for the FCCLA Beef Wars and Cupcake Wars on July 26. Miller won first prize in the FCS division for both categories. He was also named a National FCCLA Competitive Events Advisory Team member for a two-year term and will be traveling to San Antonio, Texas, in January and July to complete his duties on this team.

BUCYRUS DECA. Three students from Bucyrus High School DECA attended the Ohio DECA Summer Leadership Retreat to develop their leadership skills while expanding their network by working with DECA students from across the state. Bucyrus students who attended included Roni Agler, Haley Chester and Alex Howard.

PIONEER FCCLA. Devin Batdorf (Shelby) and Kaitlyn Hunter (Lexington) were chosen as Regional Officers for FCCLA. This is the first time FCCLA has had regional officers, and they met this summer in Columbus.
