

DECEMBER 21, 2015

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT REPORT

SUBMITTED BY DENA L. KIRBY, SUPERVISOR

STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

PIONEER STUDENTS OF THE MONTH. Pioneer Career and Technology Center has chosen Luther Gray and Paige Mazor as November's Students of the Month. Gray is a junior from Madison in the Industrial Diesel Program. He was nominated by his English instructor Mercedes McGee and is the son of Luther and Andrea Gray. Mazor, a junior from Buckeye Central, was nominated by her Dental Assisting instructor Melissa Myers. She is the daughter of Jessica Malone. For December, Graphic Arts instructor Bill Dichtl nominated Hannah Clay and Math instructor Al Sears nominated Auto Tech junior Krislyn Yoxtheimer. Clay is a senior from Plymouth and is the daughter of Greg and Nancy Clay. Yoxtheimer is from Lexington and is the daughter of Jessica Yoxtheimer.

HOLIDAY CARD DESIGNED BY PIONEER STUDENT. Northmor senior Jessica Ruhl from Graphic Arts designed the winning artwork for the Pioneer holiday card contest this year. The winning design is sent to Pioneer's constituents in the area.

DENTAL STUDENTS PASS AHA COURSE. The following students in the Dental Assisting Program recently passed the American Heart Association Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers Course. The students passed both adult and infant CPR. These students include the following: Bucyrus: Rachel Bell; Buckeye Central, Paige Mazor and Cheyenne Vanbuskirk; Crestline, Morgan Allen, Briana Johnson and Kaylee Morgan; Crestview: Anna Beal; Galion: Julia Harris, Amber Keller and Madison Lawson; Lucas, Courtney Harris; Lexington, Jordan Montgomery; Madison, Ariel Estep; Northmor: Brooklyn Mayes; Plymouth, Kaitlyn Bushey; Shelby, Skylar Lyles, Mersades Ostrander and Karlie Sanders; Willard, Camryn Creamer, Haley Handshoe, Allison King, LizBeth Olvera and Sommar Sword.

CARPENTRY STUDENTS MOVING FORWARD. Senior Charles Johnston from Colonel Crawford was recently afforded the opportunity to work at Kokosing on Early Job Placement. Carpentry juniors and seniors completed two wheelchair ramps in Bucyrus for the Crawford County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

WEB PAGE STUDENT GAINS EAGLE SCOUT. Senior Joshua Chance received his Eagle Scout Badge with the Boy Scouts of America Troop 106 last month. For his project he removed and rebuilt benches and a walkway at the Camp Michael Amphitheater at the Camp Michael Youth Camp. Chance is a student in Web Page Design.

OVER 200 STUDENTS GAIN PERFECT ATTENDANCE QUARTER 1. For the first quarter, 222 Pioneer students had perfect attendance. Twenty four of these students have had perfect attendance for five consecutive quarters. These students include the following: Joseph Balliett, Thomas Bradford, MacKenzie Cass, Adam Cunningham, Katy Cunningham, Wyatt Delarber, Zachary Girdler, Eric Hillis, Taylor Horn, Keaten Howe, Andrew Kistler, Brandon Knapp, Taylor Lear, Erik Miller, Veronica Mounts, Samuel Powell, Trevor Reed, Dakota Rupert, Kaylee Sinclair, Matthew Staats, Clayton Weaver, Jakob Webel, Jacob Weber and William Wilcox.