

Pioneer Career and Technology Center announces Cayden Moore and Kylee Swank as November 2023 Students of the Month.

Cayden is enrolled in both Collision Repair and Power Equipment programs at Pioneer. He was nominated by Rick Harvey, PEM instructor who shared, "He is an outstanding, dedicated young man." Cayden maximized his experience by taking his academics over the summer so he could take Power Equipment his senior year, in addition to Collision Repair.

Cayden is a Senior from Crestview High School, and is the son of Shala Parrish and Ray Moore. In the future, Cayden plans to continue employment in Collision Repair and utilize his power equipment knowledge in his hobbies.

Kylee is enrolled in the Performing Arts program at Pioneer. She was nominated by Mary Cosker, English instructor. Kylee is a Senior from Clear Fork High School, and is the daughter of Jessica Hodge.

Instructor Anne Kurtzman shared, "Kylee has been one of our most valuable performers. When Performing Arts is asked to sing at an event, we always ask Kylee. She has a beautiful voice and is always prepared. She has been a soloist at the last 2 Crestline Harvest Festivals". In the future, Kylee plans to work in a theater.

Pioneer Career and Technology Center announces Ashley Smith and Molly Reiderman as our December 2023 Students of the Month.

Ashley, a Junior from Crestview High School, is enrolled in the Teaching Professions program at Pioneer. She is the daughter of Gilbert and Amy Smith.

Ashley's commitment to her studies and passion for education set her apart as a role model of excellence. Ashley shared she is thankful for the opportunities Pioneer is providing, also stating, "I'm excited to come back my senior year to learn more." After graduation, she plans to continue her education at North Central State College to be an English teacher or a Special Education teacher.

Molly, a Senior from Willard High School, is currently enrolled in the Culinary Arts program at Pioneer. Her passion for the culinary arts, along with her leadership skills and drive to help others, makes Molly the perfect candidate for this award. She is the daughter of Joe and Janene Reiderman.

In the future, Molly plans to go to college for radiological sciences to earn her bachelor's degree. She hopes to work as a radiation therapist in the future.
